November 30, will be the date of the Senior Ball. This was announced by Don Deleppo, chairman for the affair, at the monthly Senior Class meeting held this week in Austin Hall. The closed event, which is formal will be held at the Olde Board from 8-12 on that night. Music will be provided by The Arabian Knights.

Ted Demauro, class president conducted the meeting the main portion of which was devoted to the dedication of the yearbook, covered on page 1.

ALSO TAKEN UP

Also taken into consideration were: what the class gift was to be and whether any seniors would be interested in intra class bowling or boxing. Names of those interested were taken.

Fr. Poirier, class moderator was called on and praised the class for its spirit shown in activities so far this year and urged continued participation.

Seniors So Honor SMC's Dean Of Men

The 1955 "Shield," college year book will be dedicated to Fr. Gerard E. Duford, S.S.E. Announcement to this effect was made by Ted Dimauro, senior class president, after the monthly class meeting which was held this week. Fr. Duford was elected by a vote of the entire senior class.

SEVENTEEN IN FAMILY

Fr. Duford, the fifth child in a family of seventeen, was born in Lyndonville, Vermont on March 27th, 1913. He attended the Lyndonville public and country grammar schools. He then enrolled at St. Anne's Academy in Swanton, Vermont for his high school training. He entered St. Michael's College in 1931 and received his Bachelor of Arts degree upon graduation in 1935. It was in 1933 when Fr. Duford made his decision to join the Society of St. Edmund and reentered St. Edmunds Seminary in Putney, Vermont after graduation from St. Michael's.

He was ordained May 18th, 1940 and was immediately assigned to parish mission work. After three years, he was transferred to St. Edmund's Junior Seminary in Swanton where he taught until 1950 when he came to St. Michael's College.

ALUMNI SECRETARY

Upon his assignment to St. Michael's College, he was appointed Alumni Secretary. In the Fall of 1951 he greeted the present senior class as freshmen in the capacity of Rector of Old Hall. Many of the seniors were members of his history classes. It was in 1953 when he received his Masters degree in History. In that same year, he won the "Valley Forge Award," for "Outstanding achievement in bringing about a better understanding of American Ways of Living." He received this award for conducting a series of radio programs entitled, "Politics and You."

While in high school and college, he was a pitcher on the Varsity Baseball teams. He also played in the Connecticut Valley League for two years.

When notified of his election, he modestly said, "I am highly flattered and deeply grateful." He, also, said that he was as happy as a man could be with the work that he is doing.

Final Budget Established At $8932

The Student Council will operate on a budget of $8,932.00 for 1954-55 academic year. This budget was unanimously accepted at the weekly meeting of the council Monday night.

The Lance budget provided the most controversy, with councilman Dick Bousquet being called upon to explain the budget request. $1,023 was submitted as an ideal Lance budget - one that would adequately recognize The Jubilee Year and also allow one copy for every student. The minimum budget was given as $953.60.

The 1954-55 budget:
Lance	$ 800
International Relations	45
Debating	328
N.F.C.C.S.	240
Michaelman	2,800
Glee Club	150
Knights and Knaves	150
Biology Club	40
Sociology	100
Shield	3,400
Chem Club	50
Outing Club	150
Thomists	15
Sodality	100

The difference between the total allotments and the Student Council budget is to be made up out of the President's funds and actual council surpluses. Together, these two sums are expected to handle any emergency allotments.

DEBATERS IN SPLIT

Wednesday's round-robin of debates at Middlebury proved that St. Michael's, Middlebury, and Vermont, among others, would have an interesting year with the Red China question.

The St. Michael's varsity debaters, affirmatives Dan O'Hear and Jack Stebbins, and negatives Don Flynn and Hank Bredenberg split four debates evenly, two up and two down. The debaters, accompanied by Debating Club Moderator Murphy, and Club President McCann, hashed out the main points of contention and thus gained a better and more complete insight into this year's national collegiate topic, which stated in full, reads: "Resolved that the United States should extend diplomatic recognition to Communist China." Both teams engaged Vermont and Middlebury.

FOUR PRACTICE ROUNDS

This round-robin constitutes the first of four practice rounds scheduled in the next few weeks. This coming week the Novices will go to Dartmouth to engage Middlebury, Vermont, and Dartmouth. Making the trip will be affirmatives Jim Dailey, and Walt Bellcourt and negatives John Steslow and Gerry Kelly. The following week the varsity will again be on the scene, this time at Vermont. The final round will involve Novices once again, and will be held here on the Hilltop. Besides these scheduled intercollegiate rounds, there is a contest slated for next week's International Relations Club meeting with Stebbins and O'Hear upholding the affirmative against Joe McCann and Paul Kane.

Unemployment In Winooski 40-50% Survey Shows

Members of the Sociology Club met Monday, October 25th at Science Hall to discuss their recently concluded survey in Winooski.

Mr. Edward Murphy of this college, and a member of the newly formed fact finding committee of Winooski suggested this survey.

One student each from St. Michael's and Trinity comprised the 24 teams that conducted the survey. The questions asked by the students dealt with the members of each family, their employment status, and their work potential. Tabulations of the questioning revealed that out of the 1500 families in Winooski, 45 to 50 percent were unemployed.

The uses of the survey are manifold. According to Mr. Robert Billups of St. Michael's Science Department, and a Councilman of Winooski, the figures derived from the survey are vital to the town's directors in dealing with the employment problem.

Many families will be given aid from the town. Through a plan introduced by Mr. Billups, work will be given to those needing aid, and subsequently the town will benefit through their work. "The figures resulting from the student's survey, will give the council a very definite picture of what projects can be handled efficiently by the number of people available." Mr. Billups stated.

Results of this survey were also utilized by the townspeople who held a meeting at Austin Hall Sunday afternoon. The meeting was to determine the advantages of purchasing the mills by the people. The facts revealed through the survey were necessary to know, before any conclusion could be reached.

Handle With Care

At the monthly Freshman meeting on November 2, the Freshman class will begin the process of electing its class officers, who will serve for the remainder of the year. At this time nominations will be accepted for the offices of Class President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and three Student Council positions. A week later, November 10, the elections will be held.

Much considerations should be given by each Freshman before he chooses the men who will represent him. Only too often the "buddy system prevails in these matters and the wrong people wind up in office; wonderful fellows and all, but not capable of doing the job they are handed; not the right men for the positions.

Demand something more than friendship from your candidates. Scrutinize their platforms and abilities. Make them prove to you that they are capable of upholding your interests. Then and only then make your choice. But above all, no matter what that choice is, make sure to vote. The man who lets the other fellow decide for him is not only avoiding the issue but neglecting a duty as well.

Law Scholarship Available At NYU

Dean Russell D. Niles of the New York University School of Law today October 30, invited outstanding college seniors throughout the country to apply for the School's $6,600 Root-Tilden Scholarships.

Applications for 1955 must be completed by February 15, Dean Niles said in his announcement. Final selections will be made late in March.

The Root-Tilden program, designed to help develop potential leaders in public affairs, was inaugurated at NYU four years ago and at present has 53 young men under training for the legal profession. Made financially possible by an anonymous donor, the scholarships are named for two NYU School of Law graduates renowned in American legal history-- Elihu Root (1867) and Samuel J. Tilden (1841).

College seniors who wish to be considered for the Root-Tilden Scholarships should apply immediately to: Dean of the School of Law, New York University Law Center, New York 3, New York.

UVM Museum Series Open To Michaelmen

The Robert Hull Fleming Museum at the University of Vermont is in the midst of another season of art exhibitions and motion picture series. The museum's personnel invite all Michaelmen to become members for the nominal sum of $1. This small sum admits you to the complete movie series and special exhibitions as well as other events to be announced.

"Museum Problems in Motion Pictures" is the title of the November 17, program of the film series, actually the third of the current season. On January 5, 1955, "The Ballet in Motion Pictures" is due to be shown. February 8, and March 16, are the dates set for "Surrealism" and "Motion Pictures and History" respectively. "Sculpture in Motion Pictures" on April 20, and "The Movies and Literature" on May 11, complete the series.

Pope Pius XII Sets New Feast Day

A new feast day in honor of Mary, the Mother of God, will be proclaimed by Pope Pius XII in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome on All Saints' Day, November first.

The new feast day has a special significance for the Society of Saint Edmund, since the society is by its full name, "Oblates of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary," and therefore is dedicated in a special way to the Blessed Virgin.

The Williston parish which is served by our former president, Rev. Eugene Alliot, S.S.E., as pastor, also bears the title the Immaculate Heart of Mary parish.

MAY 31

The Feast of the Queenship of Mary, which will be on May 31, the last day of the month of Mary, will be proclaimed by the Holy Father immediately after he crowns the ancient and revered painting of The Blessed Mother "Salus Populi Romani" ("Salvation of the Roman People") on Monday, according to the Vatican City newspaper "Osservatore Romano."

The Church has traditionally acclaimed Mary as Queen, especially in the Fifth Glorious Mystery of the Holy Rosary and in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

GREETINGS, brother rats! By now you no doubt have read several articles in The Michaelman and in the course of that reading have reviewed, or learned anew, some of the things that have been happening on campus.

Perhaps, too, there was a featured article on some activity or event, no matter how complete a newspaper is, though, there are some things that are bound to be missed, some things that in themselves aren't important enough to acquire an honored place in the news.

Walk with us, then, around campus on the hilltop and perhaps here and there we can uncover some activity or incident that even though unable to make the front page of the college weekly, it still is news.

BATTLE OF THE TITANS

For example, not too many intellectuals here know about the great debate between Russ Gangi and one of the Air Force brass on campus. The topic, in the main, we understand, was whether a Tuesday afternoon snooze was important enough to discontinue marching within one mile of Ryan Hall. Many good points were developed by both parties, of course, but the ROTC continues to hold those noisy drills. Coincidental though it may seem, the anonymous figure that used to lean out of Ryan and vehemently denounce the, "Sons of Italy," and "Fascist troops," has disappeared.

Joe Morrissey, laid low with an injured back, had quite a bit of difficulty in obtaining a board for bed. Then the weird wizards of St. James held a "think session" and bingo, there t'was, the dandiest bed board you ever saw. It's surprising how rapidly the educated man will act....Oh yes, the proctor is still looking for the missing door in the upstairs latrine.

HURRICAN HAZEL

Only those walls adjoining the quadrangle (St. Pat's, Will's and Leo's) now whisper of the horrible hurricane and the great revival meeting that was held in the moonlight of that night. Most of us know how the winds did howl and whistle by and the blackout of all lights but did you see the shapeless mass of humanity (T.G.) screeching from the rooftop. Unfortunately, the night watchman, unbeliever that he is, felt that those wonderful songs and loud praise would not help matters and cruelly put the damper on the best revival meeting ever.

Don't know how reliable the source is, but... A militant teacher in Burlington Grammar School commenced each day by asking per pupils what they would do in case of a fire drill. Recently, however, the Governor visited the institution. Instead of her usual question, the good lady asked the children what they would say if they knew the Governor of Vermont were to speak to them. Came the reply, "Rise in our seats, step into the aisle, and march quietly from the building."

TESTS SCHEDULED FOR BUSINESS GRAD SCHOOLS

Princeton, New Jersey, October 8, 1954: The Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business, required for entrance by a number of graduate business schools or divisions throughout the country, will be offered twice during the coming year, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test. During 1954, many students took the test in partial satisfaction of admission requirements of graduate business schools which prescribed it. Among these institutions are the graduate business schools or divisions of the following universities:

Columbia, Harvard, Northwestern, Rutgers, Seton Hall, and Syracuse University. University of Chicago, University of Michigan, University of Pennsylvania and Washington University (St. Louis).

MAKE APPLICATION

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each business school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business and when. Since many business school select their entering classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to the 1955 classes are advised to offer the February test, if possible.

The Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business is not designed to test specific knowledge in specialized academic subjects. Normal undergraduate training should provide sufficient general knowledge to answer the test questions. Sample questions and information regarding registration for and administration of the test are given in a Bulletin of Information.

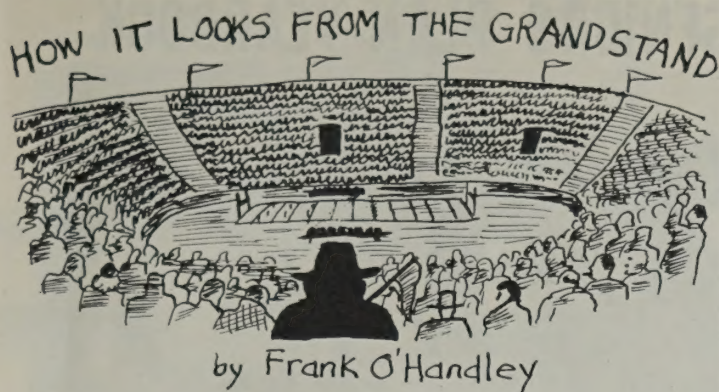

TWO TESTS

The tests will be administered on February 3, 1955 and May 14, 1955. Applications and fees must be filed with the Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey, at least two weeks before the testing date desired in order to allow ETS time to complete the necessary testing arrangements.

Now we'll never know who is better-the Sophs or the Juniors. The two unbeaten, unscored upon teams battled to a 6-6 deadlock last Thursday. Both teams ended their season with identical records: 2 wins and 1 tie. As far as we know there'll be no playoff, so the two reign as co-champions.

Dave Foley's Sophomore showed a great deal of resiliency by bouncing back from a one touchdown deficit to tie up the score early in the fourth quarter. They drove from their own 30 and in 12 plays crashed over for the touchdown.

Since the drive was mainly over the ground, we can't figure out why the Sophs elected to pass for the extra point instead of rushing for it.

Foley really did a job with his boys. The Sophs showed nothing in their game with the Seniors. Only a lucky break enabled them to win.

In the first two games, the Sophs combined running and passing in their attack. Thursday they relied mainly on the ground game. QB Joe Pietrowski called the plays which sent Don Dwyer, Ray Jacques and Jay Tierney through the line for 137 yards. Tierney and Jacques are two of the finest backs we've seen in Interclass play. Both have terrific drive.

The Juniors top ground gaining trio of John Lennon, Art Hogan, and Paul Palmer notched only 75 yards, well below their usual average. In the game, against the Seniors, for instance, Hogan alone reeled off 88 yards.

Junior QB, Paul Provasoli hit on 4 out of 6 passes, including one touchdown pass to end Bill Halloran. He might have had another scoring pass. In the 4th quarter with the score deadlocked, 6-6, Provasoli stepped back on his own 34 and spiraled one downfield to end Tim Foley, who could not quite hold on to the ball on the Soph 30.

The Soph line deserves the praise. Time and again they opened the holes which sent Tierney et.al for yardage. The Junior linebackers had to do most of the tackling. Don Cook's absence from the lineup with a leg injury didn't help the Junior cause.

Both lines were great. When a back got tackled, he held it. They were hitting hard Thursday.

Neither eleven satisfied with the stalemate. Both left the field still thinking they were the better team. The tie game was anticlimactic. We'd like to see them meet again, if it's possible.

We still have one game to go in the Interclass competition. Next weekend the Frosh and thd Seniors tangle in a game in which only honor is at stake. Both have lost two games and both are scoreless in those two games. We like the Seniors, 6-0.

Watch the MICHAELMAN for the Interclass All Star team.

JACQUES'S TD TIES JUNIORS FOR SOPHS

Two undefeated teams met in battle last Thursday morning on the St. Michael's gridiron, and when the smoke had cleared both teams emerged still undefeated as the Sophomores battled the Juniors to a 6-6 tie.

Coach Dave Foley's Sophs went into their bag of tricks after being stunned by a 70 yard Junior drive to come off the deck and tie their upper classmen.

The first half gave evidence of the dramatic finish that was to come. Defensive play was at a premium as both teams battled to a scoreless half. A Provasoli to Foley pass, covering forty yards, brought the ball to the Soph 15 for the deepest penetration of the half. Here the attack fizzled but as the forward wall of the second year men rose to the occasion.

JUNIORS SCORE

It was a rejuvenated Junior team that took the field in the second half. In three plays they moved from their own thirty to the Soph thirty-four. A Provasoli pass to Foley again was the Highlight of the drive. The Sophs had a temporary reprieve as Hurley recovered a Junior fumble on his own 26.

Unable to move the ball the Foley men were forced to punt. It was at this point that the Juniors received their biggest break. A weak punt travelled only two yards and Juniors took over on the Soph 27.

On the next play Art Hogan burst off left tackle for thirteen yards Jack Lennon picked up three more, and

SMC Sailors Finish Year With Two Wins

The Saint Michael's College Sailing Club has climaxed a successful round of Fall competition with two wins.

The Varsity tars edged out the host team, University of Vermont, 21, 19, in a quadrangular meet on Lake Champlain. McGill and Middlebury were scoreless.

In a quadrangular meet at Dartmouth, the SMC Freshmen earned a first place tie with Dartmouth and Harvard.

The Varsity A team was skippered by Leonard Frosina, of Douglaston, L.I.B. team skipper, Edsard Hughes, of Huntington, L.I., paced the meet with ten points.

In the Frosh meet, A team's Charles Lafley, Bristol, Vt., had ten points for score. Gerald Grady, of Rockville Centre, N.Y., was B team skipper.

One first place and two seconds were chalked up by the Varsity sailors in three Fall meets. The Frosh placed first in their only contest.

The Sailing Club which totals 23 members is managed by Frosina, a senior at St. Michael's.

Weather permitting, they will continue to work out on Lake Champlain until active competition is resumed in March.

Others who took part in the Fall meets are John Byrne, Proctor, Vt.; John Haggerty, Caldwell, N.J.; Joseph Koch, Baldwin, N.Y.; Paul Bostley, Greenfield, Mass.; Daniel Murray, St. John's, Canada; Bernard Winn, Metuchen, N.J.; Robert Shea, Florence, Mass.; and Edward Cullen, Springfield, Mass.

the Juniors were knocking on the goalline door. Quarterback Provasoli then caught the Soph defense napping and hit Bill Hallaran with a pass on the goalline for the score.

The very important try for the extra point failed, as the Sophs stopped Lennon inches short of the goal.

SOPHS BOUNCE BACK

The Junior touchdown served as a catalyst to the Soph offense. Instead of laying down after the score they bounced back with a seventy yard frive of their own.

Joe Pietrowski was in the engineer's seat and Ray Jaques and Jay Tierney supplied the fire. Running from the T and the single wing the Sophs dazzled the Juniors. Highlights of the march were two double reverses. The first with Jay Tierney on the running end covered nineteen yards. Ray Jaques did the honors on the second one, good for nine yards and the T.D.

PAT FAILS

It was a tense situation as Porreca went back to try the extra point. However the

LA BLANC COPS TENNIS TOURNAY

Don LeBlanc, after splitting four sets with Bill Chiasson, came back to win the fifth and final set, in the Tennis Tourney finals.

The scoring went: 6-0, 6-4, 0-6, 3-6, 6-3.

LeBlanc relied on a steady court game and adroit net maneuvering to outlast his speedier rival.

By his victory, LeBlanc contributes 5 points towards the Senior Class's bid for the Interclass trophy to be awarded at the end of the year.

center went to Visconti who attempted to pass for the winning point. The pass was short of its mark, and that was the scoring for the day. A dramatic ending to a jam-thrilled contest.

The last four minutes were spent to futile attempts by both teams to score. On the last play of the game Jay Tierney raced from midfield to the Junior thirty-five where he was brought down. A second later the final whistle blew.

Coaches Foley and Hamrah deserve praise for the outstanding jobs they did. Also a nod to both backfields and to linemen Ray Garland of the Juniors, and Fran Wallace, Soph end.

Safety Gives Sophs 2-0 Win Over Seniors

A second quarter safety was the difference as the Sophomores edged the Seniors 2-0 last Sunday in the Interclass Football League.

In a game marred by frequent penalties and fumbles the only score came as a result of a bad pass from center. A Soph drive was halted on the Seniors fifteen as Dick Dalia picked off a pass thrown by Sophomore quarterback Visconti. Two plays later Ed Lundrigan went back to his five to kick. Ed wasn't quite long enough to reach the pass from center and the ball rolled into the end zone for the safety.

Both teams penetrated deep into enemy territory, however neither team could climax their respective drives. The seniors lacked the scoring punch, while the Sophs possessed a little too much punch. Penalties took a heavy toll on the Soph offense, which off-set some fine running by Ray Jaques and Jay Tierney

We've been asked to remind cadets that the bulletin board outside the CADRE offices is there for their use-to be read twice each day. Many cadets fail to realize that all the bulletins which go up on the board concern them; the procedure to be followed each drill period is posted, as well as bulletins on special formations, clothing issue, medical examinations, cadet records, and DEMERITS, which have to be worked off within a set period of time-so read that board! Lt. Griggs is also using part of the board to post AF articles of special interest to cadets-one section is changed twice each week, the other once-both contain articles especially designed for easy and interesting reading. It's an easy means for a cadet to remain cognizant of what's going on in the field he may soon be part of.

RIFLE TEAM

The rifle team's season started on the 27th and 28th with movies on the art of marksmanship shown to interested candidates. Before going out on the range sometime in November, candidates will be instructed in the gym on positions used and how to handle the rifles. Once out on the range, elimination will be made according to the scores attained by each candidate. All those signed up are reminded that all meetings are mandatory. The "Touchdown Trot" 90 Couples Attend

The "Touchdown Trot", honoring intermural football, which took place last Saturday, October 23, in Austin Hall, was a success both socially and financially, according to Hank Bredenberg, Junior Class President.

In a well-decorated hall done in a football field-like motif, an encouraging and enthusiastic turn-out of approximately 90 couples danced to the music of the Nu-Tones.

Though exact figures were not available at press time, Mr. Bredenberg stressed that any profit would be coupled together with the results of the big Junior Prom Committee Raffle now in progress towards making a bigger and better Junior Prom this coming spring.

Hank Bredenberg and Ray Geremia, chairman of the dance committee, wish to thank all those who helped contribute to the success of the dance and those who attended the event.
